

Success Stories at the Anaheim Convention Center

- Anaheim Convention Center (ACC) was the first exhibition facility to be GBAC Certified on the West Coast, earning the gold standard certification in outbreak prevention, response and recovery. Read more. Since then, ACC has been approved for reaccreditation through 2022.
- ACC was the first exhibition facility in California to host a large-scale tradeshow. Informa Markets Engineering West 2021 aligned with the Anaheim Convention Center and Visit Anaheim to produce a safe and healthy show. Read more.
- ACC hosted its largest meeting in two years with nearly 60,000 in-person attendees gathering for Informa Markets' Natural Products Expo West. The event supported over 23,000 local jobs and brought $145 million in economic impact to the local community. Read more.
- WonderCon is the largest fan convention to take place at the ACC in over two years. From April 1-3, 2022, WonderCon, presented by Comic-Con International, generated an estimated $82.3 million in economic impact to the local community and is the first of five fan conventions to return to Anaheim this year. Read more.